

2019 Man or Woman of the Year
Nomination Form

Rules for Nominating the Man or Woman of the Year

1. The man or woman nominated must be at least 35 years of age, as of December 31, 2019.
2. Their activities and accomplishments shall preferably be current (within the last five years, however longer periods may be considered).
3. The activities and accomplishments that will qualify a person for a man or woman of the year award must be activities which have added to the total community development of the Dunn area.
4. The person nominated must be one who has voluntarily given over their time, talent, and energies without remuneration. Nominations may be made by any citizen.
5. For the nomination to be accepted, all the details concerning the person's name, age, family, employment, civic and religious life, along with the activities and accomplishments that make this person worthy of the award, should be submitted to the Chamber office in writing no later than January 3, 2020. This award will be presented at the Annual Membership and Awards Banquet on January 28, 2020.
